2000 Royals Hall of Fame

All-Star outfielder Willie Wilson and manager Whitey Herzog will become the newest members of the Kansas City Royals Hall of Fame during the 2000 season. Induction ceremonies are scheduled for Saturday, July 1 at Kauffman Stadium.

Wilson and Herzog were each selected on at least 75 percent of the ballots issued to Royals Hall of Famers, selected members of the Kansas City media, Royal Lancers and Royals executives. They will become the 17th and 18th members of this select group that was established in 1986. For a complete list of the Royals Hall of Fame, please refer to pages 231-233 of the 2000 Royals Media Guide.

Wilson, a fleet-footed outfielder, was a first-round draft choice for the Royals in 1974 and reached the big leagues in 1976. He hit over .300 for four consecutive seasons from 1979-82 and stole more than 30 bases in 11 consecutive campaigns, including a league-leading and club record 83 steals in 1979.

Willie Wilson

In 1980, he became only the second player in baseball history to stroke 100 hits from each side of the plate while collecting a league-leading 230 hits. He earned a Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 1980, was the Royals Player of the Year in 1981 and earned a spot on the American League All-Star team in both 1982 and '83. He led the league in batting in 1982 with a .332 average and led the American League in triples five times.

He completed a 19-year big league career in 1994 with a .285 average, garnering 2,207 hits and 668 stolen bases.

Dorrel Norman Elvert (Whitey) Herzog, affectionately known as "The White Rat," managed the Royals from 1975-1979. He led the team to three straight American League Western Division titles, the first division titles in club history. His top season came in 1977 when he managed the Royals to a club record 102 wins. He was named Manager of the Year in 1976 by UPI. He is the Royals all-time winningest manager, posting a record of 410-304, a .574 winning percentage.

Spencer T. "Herk" Robinson

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Herk Robinson begins his 31st year with the Kansas City Royals and his 10th season as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.

During his stint as G.M., which began on October 10, 1990, Robinson has pushed for the Royals minor league pipeline to pump quality talent to the major league level, as it did in the 1970's thru mid-1980's.

In the last 10 years, Robinson and his staff have reshaped the organization's major and minor league operations. Under his guidance, the Royals have a rededication to scouting and signing amateur players, while continuing a strong player development program and improving the club through key trades and acquisitions. This hard work seems to be paying off as the organization's success has been rewarded in recent years. In 1994, the Royals were named Organization of the Year by Topps, Baseball America and USA Today. In 1995, Topps tabbed the Royals and New York Mets as co-winners of baseball's Organization of the Year award and the Royals finished second to the Oakland Athletics for the top spot in 1998.

Robinson's tenure with the Royals extends far beyond his current title. He and the late Joe Burke are the only Royals executives to have worked in virtually every aspect of the club's baseball and administrative operations. Robinson joined the club just after its inaugural season in December of 1969 as Assistant Scouting Director. He was steadily promoted up the Royals ladder as Director of Operations in 1973, Vice President in 1975 and Executive Vice-President for Administration in 1981. This well-rounded background makes him a solid leader for the Royals. Before joining the organization, Robinson worked for the Cincinnati Reds (1962-67) and Baltimore Orioles (1968).

Born June 25, 1940, Robinson attended the University of Miami (FL) and Washington University in St. Louis. He and his wife, Kathy, have 2 daughters, Ashley and Amanda.

Pinch Hitter Rule

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up).

A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a designated hitter only.

Designated Hitter Rule

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

No-Hitter Summary

Steve Busby, Jim Colborn and Bret Saberhagen are the only pitchers in Royals history to have hurled no-hitters.

Busby accomplished the feat on 2 occasions, the first coming at Tiger Stadium when he held Detroit hitless on April 27, 1973. He gave up 6 walks and struck out 4 as Kansas City won 3-0. His 2nd gem also came on the road on June 19, 1974 at Milwaukee's County Stadium where he blanked the Brewers, 2-0. It was in near perfect fashion as the only baserunner was George Scott, who walked to lead off the 2nd inning.

Colborn recorded the 1st no-hitter by a Kansas City pitcher in Kauffman Stadium on May 14, 1977, when he blanked the Texas Rangers, 6-0. It too was nearly a perfect outing as Colborn walked one batter and hit another while facing only 28 batters.

Saberhagen recorded his gem in Kauffman Stadium vs. the Chicago White Sox on August 26, 1991. He walked 2 and fanned 5.

California Angels ace Nolan Ryan recorded the 1st no-hitter in Kauffman Stadium on May 15, 1973. He struck out 12 and allowed only 3 base runners, all walks, in the 3-0 win, his 1st career no-hitter.

Royals Hall of Fame

The Royals Hall of Fame was established to honor individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the Royals organization.

To date, 16 people have been inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame. Outfielder Amos Otis and pitcher Steve Busby were inducted in the inaugural ceremony in 1986; Paul Splittorff, Cookie Rojas and Dick Howser were inducted in 1987; Dennis Leonard and Hal McRae were added in 1989; while Fred Patek, Larry Gura and Joe Burke joined the select group in 1992. Owner Ewing Kauffman was the sole addition in the Silver Anniversary season of 1993, George Brett was added in 1994 and Frank White joined the Hall in 1995. Muriel Kauffman and John Mayberry joined the select group in 1996. Dan Quisenberry is the most recent inductee, as he was added in 1998.

Amos Otis' career with the Royals spanned 14 years (1970-1983) when he held down the starting centerfield spot. He compiled a solid .280 average in a Kansas City uniform with 193 home runs, 992 RBI and 340 stolen bases while winning 3 Gold Gloves and 5 All-Star nominations. He was the Royals Player of the Year three times (1971, '73 and '78).

Steve Busby was one of the Royals best pitchers and top competitors despite having his career shortened by a shoulder injury. From 1973-75 he averaged 18.6 wins, 260 innings and 177 strikeouts per season while establishing many club records. A 2-time All-Star, he's the only pitcher to toss no-hitters in each of his first two big league seasons.

Paul Splittorff's big league career included action in 15 seasons from 1970-84. He was a mainstay on the staff from 1972-80 when he averaged nearly 15 wins and 220 innings per year. The big left-hander holds the Royals career records for wins, starts and innings pitched. In 1973 he became the first 20-game winner in Royals history.

Cookie Rojas brought eight-and-a-half years National League experience to the Royals in 1970 and his experience and leadership abilities were felt immediately with the young expansion team, providing a solid base for future championships. Rojas was named to the American League All-Star team four consecutive years (1971-74).

Dick Howser managed the Royals from August 31, 1981 to February 23, 1987 before losing a courageous battle to cancer on June 17, 1987. During Howser's regime, the Royals won 2 division titles and a World Championship in 1985. He compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while guiding the Royals. His uniform number 10 was the first number retired by the Royals.

Dennis Leonard is the only 3-time 20-game winner in Royals history. The 3-time Royals Pitcher of the Year holds the club's career record for complete games and shutouts, and single season highs in starts, complete games, innings pitched and strikeouts. His 130 wins from 1975-81 were the most by a righthanded pitcher in the major leagues.

Hal McRae's hard-nosed, aggressive style of play set the tone for the Royals championship clubs. He spent 14 full seasons in a Royals uniform and was recognized as one of the AL's most prolific designated hitters. He was a 3-time All-Star, led the league in doubles twice and topped the loop with 133 RBI in 1982. He earned Royals Player of the Year honors in 1974 and '82.

Despite being the smallest player in the big leagues at 5-4, Fred Patek was a cornerstone of the early success of the franchise. He wore a Royals uniform from 1971-79, posting a .241 average in 1,245 games, earning a pair of All-Star game selections from his shortstop position. He led the league with 11 triples in 1971 and with 53 stolen bases in 1977.

Larry Gura logged a 111-78 record as a Royal, a 59 percent winning percentage, the top mark in club history. The crafty lefthander was a member of the 1980 American League All-Star squad and twice was selected as the Royals Pitcher of the Year (1978 and 1981). His career highs for wins came in 1980 and 1982 when he recorded 18 victories.

Under Joe Burke's guidance, baseball achieved its greatest success in Kansas City. He joined the club in 1973 and served as General Manager from 1974-1981. He was President of the club from that time until cancer took his life in 1992. He was named Major League Executive of the Year in 1976 and was named "Mr. Baseball" at the Kansas City Baseball Awards Dinner in 1978.

The strength and integrity of Ewing Kauffman's ownership was the cornerstone of success for the Royals during the club's first 25 years. Since purchasing the club as an expansion franchise in 1968, Mr. K's primary motivation was to provide winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians. His leadership helped make the Royals one of baseball's most successful franchises.

HALL OF FAME

George Brett wrapped up a 20-year Hall of Fame career with the Royals in 1993. The 13-time All-Star and 8-time Royals Player of the Year is the club's all-time leader in every offensive category except stolen bases. He was an American League MVP, a Gold Glove Award winner and 3-time AL batting champion. His uniform number 5 will never be worn again.

Frank White was the defensive star for the Royals from 1973-90 as he won 8 Gold Gloves, an American League record for 2nd basemen. He was selected to the All-Star team 8 times, named the Royals Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986 and tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980. He is 2nd on the Royals career charts in hits, games and at bats and is 3rd in doubles and 4th in homers. White's number 20 has been retired.

Muriel Kauffman, the Royals First Lady, was the driving force behind Mr. K's decision to buy the Kansas City Royals. She was a member of the club's Board of Directors and served as a major impetus to the smashing success of the Royal Lancers. Away from the ballpark, she established the Muriel McBrien Kauffman Foundation to support and perpetuate the performing arts and to advance education, research and prevention in the health field.

John Mayberry was the Royals first true power hitter and probably the most impressive. He was a bomber in a lineup that featured speed and gap hitters. In 6 seasons in Kansas City he averaged 24 home runs and 94 RBI. He earned All-Star honors in both 1973 and '74 and became the club's first 30-home run hitter with 34 "taters" in 1975.

Dan Quisenberry's bullseye control, submarine-style delivery and quick wit made him a favorite among his teammates, media, peers and fans. He earned Royals Pitcher of the Year honors 4 times, was selected to the All-Star team on 3 occasions, led the American League in saves 5 times and was a 5-time winner of the American League Fireman of the Year award.

Retired Numbers

In a ceremony that took place on April 7, 1997 prior to the season's home opener, the Kansas City Royals unveiled a special display of the club's three retired uniform numbers. The number 10, worn by former manager Dick Howser; the number 5, worn by former third baseman George Brett; and the number 20, worn by former second baseman Frank White; had all previously been retired by the ballclub. From that date forward, the four-foot high solid bronze numbers will be displayed at Kauffman Stadium just below the message board in center field.

1999 NOTES: The Royals started the season strong vs. Minnesota sweeping a 4-game set at the Metrodome in May...the Twins however, won the final 6 games of the season vs. Kansas City sweeping the series at Kauffman Stadium and at the Metrodome in August...the Twins 8-5 overall edge was their first season series advantage since 1996 and the most wins by either team since KC won 8 in 1990...the Twins will enter the 2000 season 1 game short of tying their longest winning streak ever vs. KC...the Royals are 43-32 in the Twin Cities in the last 12 campaigns and 57-57 since the dome opened in 1982.

KAUFFMAN STADIUM

Ewing M. Kauffman

Adding age to its beauty, the Kansas City Royals play their 28th season at Kauffman Stadium in 2000.

Recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks, Royals Stadium opened April 10, 1973 with the Royals defeating the Texas Rangers 12-1 before 39,464 fans. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 All-Star Game, 3 no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84 and '85 and 7 World Series tilts in 1980 and 1985. The facility was officially re-named in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993. Since its opening, a total of 49,848,120 people have visited the stadium, including a record 2,477,700 in 1989.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a 12-story high scoreboard and a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The scoreboard contains 16,320 light bulbs, most of them on the 40 by 60 foot screen. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world.

Added in 1990 was a state-of-the-art Sony JumboTron color video display board installed on the left field hillside. Measuring 30 by 40 feet, it's one of the largest video boards in the U.S. The top of the board features the Royals logo. In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends to the left field corner.

A grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium prior to the 1995 season. The fences were also moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen at that time and lowered from 12 feet to 9 feet.

Prior to the 1999 campaign, additional field level seating, known as "Crown Seats" and four dugout suites were added to enhance the stadium. Prior to the 2000 season the Picnic Pavilion was added near the base of the JumboTron in leftfield for groups attending the games.

The re-naming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success. Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians. Kauffman, who founded Marion Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health care company with sales reaching nearly one billion dollars, possessed a sense of daring and an innate ability to motivate those around him. The club's even-handed philosophy bears the Kauffman stamp. Mr. K also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was inbred into the Royals organization and still remains today.

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man-of-the-Year, the "Mr. Baseball" honoree at the Kansas City Baseball Awards Dinner in 1976 and 1991 and induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame. He also received the Horatio Alger Award, the Golden Plate Award from the American Academy of Achievement, the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce "Kansas Citian of the Year" Award and the Distinguished Service Award from the American Legion. Mr. K passed away on August 1, 1993.
